Gwen Spencer A life in painting

Painting and drawing have been an important part of Gwen Spencer's life for more than 80 years. Gwen began studying art in her native Buenos Aires and continued at the Putney School of Art & Design from 1964 to 1980. She was elected to the National Society of Painters, Sculptors and Printmakers in 1971 and remained active until 2012. Gwen has regularly exhibited in and around London, selling to individuals all over the world. Now, at the age of 96, she has decided to share a selection of her work, much of which has never been seen in public before. Gwen works in a variety of media including oil, pastel, charcoal and collage. Please drop by this fascinating exhibition that celebrates Gwen's achievements over a lifetime.

Gwen will donate 50% of the proceeds from sales to the Friends of Putney School of Art & Design.
